Common Grazing Dilemmas - No 13

In this series, we look at some different dilemmas facing Common Grazings and some ideas for resolution.

Splitting the payment for the township bull when some shareholders have cattle and others do not

The Crofting Commission suggest a pragmatic approach is taken for this

Only shareholders with cattle will normally contribute.

Liability insurance may be an issue for a hired in bull.

Scope for a new cattle owner to join the 'bull group' should be possible.

Method of charging shareholders needs to be agreed, per cow or per share (souming)

If you have further questions about how to manage your own Common Grazings, visit our common grazings page on www.FAS.Scot or call our advice line on 0300 323 0161 or email advice@fas.scot

